Target Market

The partnership targets mid-sized businesses seeking to modernize their supply chain planning capabilities without the complexities and costs of traditional enterprise solutions.

Key Offerings

The key offerings of the partnership encompass a comprehensive suite of supply chain solutions tailored to mid-sized businesses. These include accurate and responsive supply chain planning, improved demand forecasting capabilities to align inventory and production with market needs, as well as optimization of inventory levels to reduce excess and shortages.

The partnership also provides integrated sales and operations planning (S&OP) processes for better alignment between sales, operations and finance, along with what-if analysis and scenario planning to anticipate and mitigate risks. Enhanced collaboration tools are also available to improve communication across the supply chain, ensuring a cohesive and efficient operation.

Customer Benefits

The enVista-Kinaxis partnership offers numerous customer benefits, including scalable planning solutions that grow with the business, ensuring long-term adaptability and flexibility. These solutions are cost-effective, providing a lower total cost of ownership compared to traditional enterprise planning systems. Clients can also benefit from rapid implementation timelines, allowing them to quickly realize the advantages of the new system. Enhanced supply chain visibility and control are achieved, leading to better overall management.

Additionally, data-driven insights are provided, enabling more informed decision-making and strategic planning across the supply chain.

Implementation Approach

Assessment and Strategy Development: enVista conducts a thorough assessment of the client's current supply chain processes and develops a tailored strategy for implementing Kinaxis® Planning One™.

- Configuration and Customization: The solution is configured to meet the specific needs of the client, with customization options available.
- Training and Support: Comprehensive training for end-users and ongoing support to ensure smooth operation and continuous improvement.
- Continuous Improvement: Regular reviews and updates to ensure the solution evolves with the client's business needs.

enVista's consulting expertise and Kinaxis' cutting-edge technology together deliver scalable, cost-effective solutions that enhance efficiency and responsiveness. Clients benefit from improved planning accuracy, optimized inventory management and better decision-making capabilities. This collaboration equips businesses with the tools needed to thrive in an increasingly complex supply chain landscape.
